FROM

• MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA

BY

MARIA J. LIGGETT DARE.

PREFACE.

This little book, with I am sure, many imperfections that I would gladly have corrected, was begun many years ago, and has been often laid aside. I began the work because of the great love my mother had for her "kin." I soon found Mrs. Phillips, and that she was similarly engaged. We have always assisted each other in exchanges of results of our researches. I was deterred by the long illness and death of my mother, she by the enforced absence of herself and family from the country, her husband being in the U. S. Navy and her own health frail. This winter I took it up again.

My mother and I searched the country from Shepherdstown to Hagerstown; tracked through damp grass knee deep to read inscriptions on tombstones in old cemeteries. We found Mr. John Peter Smith in Sharpsburg, who had in his possession much of value—the old Muster Roll of the Chaplins of French and Indian War of 1757, old deeds of Joseph Chapline and part of his family record.

I employed both an English and American Genealogist for some points. The English Genealogist for one hundred and fifty dollars sent me only Admiral Carter's will and information that the Chapline crest was the same as that of a family ennobled in London in 1593. I gathered the best results in the three best libraries in Philadelphia; the City, and the Episcopal Church Library in Baltimore; the Historical Society Rooms there; the Library of the Patent Office, Treasury, and War Department in Washington, and in the Congressional Library in Washington, going through every old history and every manuscript in the old manuscript room and all English Genealogies in the Library; the Church records in the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary Library near Alexandria, Va., and I carefully searched the Hagerstown records, and had others search in Annapolis. The burning of many of the old Maryland manuscripts enshrouded much of interest in oblivion. I could do no more.

NOTICE.

In Hening's Virginia, p. 371, it says :

"New Year began March 25, Jewish compilation. This rule observed until 1751. After last day of December, 1751, the year 1752 was to begin January 1. This was made necessary by the adoption in England of Calendar of Pope Gregory XIII made in 1752."

"Up to this date Calendar of Julius Cæsar, made 45 years before Christ and called, 'Julian Calendar or Old Style' was used." Therefore, when you see a date written thus, 1631-2, it means that the old year was continued to the 25th of March, and New Year began at that date. Remember this fact in reading births in Talbot County Church Records.

Where second marriages have taken place, and they have a second family, the numbers go on, from last number of first family of children, because they are that number of the Chapline blood in that special family.

To my beloved mother, Louvisa Chapline Carter Liggett, who so unselfishly assisted, by purse and memory, in this record, and who joined her dear ones gone before, February 6, 1896, I dedicate this work.

Daniel Webster said, "Those who do not look upon themselves as a link connecting the past with the future, do not perform their duty to the world."

I hereby tender my thanks to Anna Latimer Chapline Phillips, who so cheerfully and generously aided in collection of this data, and also to Mr. John Peter Smith, of Sharpsburg, Md., who gave much information.

ISAAC CHAPLINE.
ENSIGN IN ENGLISH ROYAL NAVY
TO AMERICA WITH LORD DELAWARE.
IN 1610.
Settled in "Chaplaine's Choyce"
IN 1622.

Isaac Chapline, Ensign Royal Navy, came to America in the "Starr" in 1610 as King's Council under Lord Delaware. He was granted large tracts of land on the south side of the James River, in the Parish of Jordan's and on Bicker's Creek, which land he named "Chapline's Choice."—Hotten's Original Lists.

"In 1622 Isaac Chapline was joined by his wife Mary Chapline and their son John Chapline, who came to America in the 'James' accompanied by four servants."—(Colonial Records of Virginia Land Book, Vol. VII, p. 531, Richmond, Va., Henning's, etc.

By Patent.

See also "History of First Settlements of Virginia," by John Burk, Vol. I, also "Virginia Company of London, 1606 to 1692." Vol. I, page 84.

Isaac Chapline probably made visits to England during this period. I do not imagine he was separated from his wife for twelve years. The word Kinsman often occurs in Hotten's Original Lists where child is meant.

It is said that when Isaac Chaplin called the attention of the ship's captain to the spelling of his name "Chaplain" the Captain replied, "We will then add an 'e'" and so it stood in the quaint spelling of that day "Isacke Chaplaine." In a second place Hotten spells the name Chaplin. It is sometimes spelled Chapline, and in this generation so prevails.

John Smith's History of Virginia, p. 269 says: "Chapline's Choice lay on south side of James River in Parish of Jordan's and on Bicker's Creek."

(7³) Rebecca.

Many dates and names illegible on several pages in this record of Queen Anne's Parish, Prince George's Co.

This (6⁶) John Chapline's birth is not recorded with the others, but as he is mentioned in his father's will I put it as probably 1738.

(5²) Francis Chapline, b. 1708, married Mary Webb, Dec. 18, 1742. His will was probated Aug. 21, 1752. They had no children.

The Webb family were among the earliest in this country. Name is frequent on Church records.

(2³) William Chapline, son of Isaac, b. 1625, married Mary Hopper, died in 1669 on his plantation, having married about 1650. They had 3 children:

(3¹) Elizabeth b. about 1651.

(3²) William b. about 1659.

(3³) Mary b. about 1663.

(3²) William Chapline, son of William, married about 1685 a Miss Travers. They had 6 children to live. The wife died first. He died 1718. Two children seem to have been minors at this date, as John Hopkins was paid the small sum of £7 ($35) for looking after them.

This is the William Chapline who signed the address to His Majesty the King in November 1689 in behalf of the Protestants of Calvert County, Md. The six children living at the time of his death in 1718 were:

(4¹) William Chapline,

(4²) Isaac Chapline died 1743,

(4³) Solomon Chapline died 1765,

(4⁴) Thomas Chapline died 1730, wife Christiana, no children,

(4⁵) Mary Chapline

(4⁶) Elizabeth Chapline

(4¹) William Chapline married Elizabeth Black (I have good reasons for thinking her name was Black, but no positive proof) in 1706. They had seven children, two of them died young.

(5¹) Joseph Chapline born Sept. 5, 1707.

(5²) William Chapline born Oct. 25, 1709 and died before 1726.

(5³) Mary Chapline born Sept. 17, 1712.

(5⁴) Anna Chapline born Dec. 10, 1714, and died young.

(5⁵) Moses Chapline born June 11, 1717.

(5⁶) Elizabeth Chapline born Nov. 11, 1722.

(5⁷) William—second given that name—born April 17, 1726.

These children were all born in Queen Anne's Parish, Prince George's Co., Md.

But little was found of the female branches. Two of the daughters married, namely:

(5³) Mary to Mr. Hedges of Hedgesville. From them descended Rev. Chapline Hedges, mentioned on page 310 in "Meade's Old Churches." He was a man of most exemplary life and lovely character. The family of Hedges did not respond to my request. I append a few notes: "Absalom Hedges patented 'Standing Stone,' 70 acres in Fred^a Co., Md., in 1771."—Scharf, p. 378.

Samuel Hedges m. Mollie Tabb, own cousin to Gen. Winfield Scott. Their children were 1, William; 2, Jonas; 3, Enoch; 4, Seton E.

(5⁶) Elizabeth, sixth child of William and Elizabeth Chapline, born Nov. 14th, 1722. Married Mr. Turner; they had one son:

(6¹) Elrud Turner of Berkeley Co., W. Va.

(5²) William died in infancy.

(5⁴) Ann died in infancy.

The three remaining children (5¹) Joseph Chapline, (5³) Moses Chapline and (5⁷) William Chapline all left large families.

(4²) Isaac Chapline married Miss Briscoe, whose sister Rachel settled up his estate for her in 1743. They had two sons:

(5¹) Elias Arnold Chapline and

(5²) James Chapline.

(4³) Solomon had two daughters, Ann and Susanna, and a son Solomon—the latter married Bridgett——and had 3 daughters, whose names appear in the church records:

(5¹) Nancy, born March 19, 1752,

(5²) Nelly born Feb. 14, 1757,

(5³) Sarah, born Nov. 13, 1759,

There may have been other children not recorded. I think he died before his father.

Of (4⁵) Mary Chapline and

(4⁶) Elizabeth Chapline I could find no trace.

BRANCH OF
JOSEPH CHAPLINE, SR. (5¹)

BORN SEPTEMBER 7, 1707.

Son of William and Elizabeth.

GENEALOGY OF JOSEPH CHAPLINE'S WIFE AND HER SISTER.

(5¹) Joseph Chapline born in Prince George's Co., Sept. 5th, 1707, married Ruhamah Williams in 1742. She was daughter of Rev. Wm. Williams and his wife Sarah James, who came from Carmathonsliire, Wales. The wife died in Wales, as did eight children. He came to this country and brought three daughters: Sarah, Jane and Ruhamah. He came as a Presbyterian missionary to the then Colony of Virginia. A ring which belonged to him is now in possession of his great-great-granddaughter, Mrs. Julia Jones Alvey, wife of Hon. Richard H. Alvey, many years Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Washington, Allegheny and Garret counties. This ring bears the inscription—

"William Williams is my name.
Christ and His Glory, my aim."

Sarah Williams married Mr. Price of Maryland. Jane married Col. Benj. Chambers, founder of Chambersburg, Pa. He and three brothers, James, Robert and Joseph, came to Pennsylvania from County Antrim, Ireland, between 1726-30. Took up large tracts of land. His first wife was Sarah Patterson. She left one son, James Patterson Chambers. She died young. He then married Jane Williams and had 7 children, Ruhamah, William, Benjamin, Jane (married to Adam Ross), Joseph and George. Hetty married Wm. M. Brown, Esq. Col. Chambers was well educated and a very prominent man in all that was for his country's good. Graves of his family in good preservation. He died Feb. 17, 1788, over 80 years of age. Jane, his wife, died Jan. 13, 1795, aged 70. Her son, Capt. Benjamin Chambers died Dec. 1813. Much said of this family in Day's Historical Collections, p. 350. The son James raised company of militia in 1775, advanced during Revolution to rank of colonel. William and Benjamin to rank of captain.

(5¹) Joseph Chapline, founder of Sharpsburg, Md., willed his home farm to his son Jeremiah. The house was an ordinary two-story log house, commonly built at that day. It burned down some years ago and behind the weatherboards Mr. John P. Smith found Jos. Chapline's Muster Roll for the French and Indian War, date 1757. Contained his name as Lieut. Colonel, the name of his brother, Capt. Moses Chapline and many others, some nearly effaced. Mr. Smith sent a photograph of it to the Maryland Historical Society.

That home is now owned by Mr. Henry Netkirk. The cemetery was not protected by deed, and the owner desired to use the land for a peach orchard! It was a beautiful bluff on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and well drained. The bodies were removed to Mountain View Cemetery, and a stone erected by Mrs. Louisa Chapline Liggett. Previous to the removal of these bodies (seven in all), Mr. J. P. Smith had kindly removed the body of Capt. Alex. Thompson, his parents, and his wife, Deborah Chapline, and the flat tombstone that covered them and told of his Revolutionary achievements. They lie also in Mountain View Cemetery, Sharpsburg. When the bodies of the Chaplines were removed the skeletons interred for 130 years were found intact, and were visited by all the physicians of the neighborhood. The coffin handles, washed with gold, were as small as bureau handles of this day.

SOME NAMES OF JOS. CHAPLINE'S LAND.

"Ammandale," "Badham's Refuse," "Clyesdale," "Contentment," "Little Friendship," "Near the Navel," "Bachelor's Delight," "Little Thought," "Tuckett," "Hills and Dales," "Hopewell," "Hunting the Hare," "Loss and Gain."

His son Joseph's "Love in a Village," "Stokey," "Hunting Ground," "Joe's Lott," etc.

The house of (6²) Joseph Chapline, Jr., is now owned by Mr. John Rensburg and is called "Mt. Pleasant." It was built by him with bricks from England, and is still a fine mansion. The roof is square. Has a large drawing-room full length of house, a wide hall and stairway, with two rooms to the right. In one of these is a cupboard on each side of a wide fireplace; over the mantel the whole wall is encased in wood, all handsomely carved. The house has four large bedrooms upstairs and wide hall. A two-story porch back, from which is a grand view of the Potomac. The house has a stone wing with dormer windows, probably his first home. A row of fine wood-carving is all around the ceiling of one room. The house was built on a very romantic bend of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and has a beautiful view of the Potomac river, and water was forced up to it from a deep valley on the land by machinery. He entertained George Washington in this home.

House occupied by (6⁶) Sarah and (6⁷) Jane Chapline, and in which they died, was second door from North Mechanic St., Sharpsburg, and situated on Main St. It was burned and with it most of the family records of their father, Joseph Chapline, Sr.

Ground Rents on Sharpsburg land still in force, 39 cts. on every quarter acre, to limits of Sharpsburg, as first laid out, and due July 9th of every year. This land was all left, with some excepted lots, to Joseph Chapline, Jr., who left no children. His wife outlived him. In the year 1821 she had a bell brought from England which she presented to the Episcopal Church of Sharpsburg, Md.

BRANCH OF MOSES CHAPLINE,

SON OF
WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH

Born June 11, 1717

in

Prince George Co., Md.

GENEALOGY OF MOSES CHAPLINE'S WIFE.

Janet Caton married (5th) Moses Chapline at her home near Annapolis, Md., in the year 1740. She was daughter of William and Elizabeth Caton and born about 1718, in St. Margaret's, Westminster Parish, north side of Severn River, opposite Annapolis. Daughter of William and Elizabeth Caton. Her brother Thomas married Ann ———; their son William, the last male member of the family, lived to be 80 years of age. He died about 1825.

The Catons were of Saxon origin, Norfolk and Suffolk, England. Thomas Caton, who died 1640, wife, Anne Wythe, had Thomas, Henry, Richard, John and Peter. Hotten's Original Lists gives "Richard Caton for Virginia, in the David in 1635, aged 26 years." My great-grandmother claimed the Baltimore Catons as cousins.

"Moses Chapline, Capt. of Co. of Militia in French and Indian War at Old Fort Frederick, 1757."

The Elk Ridge Mountains are in sight of Moses Chapline's land, and South Mountain is also.

The Moses Chapline homestead, part of Mount Pleasant, and Josiah's Bitt, part of the estate of Mose, Chapline, Senior, was sold to Michael Fackler April 1, 1779, for £4,600 common currency. Deed signed by Moses Chapline and wife, Mary Caldwell, who resigned all rights. Deed on record at Hagerstown, Md. It came into the hands of John Shiffler and his family Dec. 20, 1828. So that Miss Betsey had lived in that house 72 years when it burned down and her life was lost.

"Well Done," one tract of Moses Chapline's land, contained 1822 acres.

The Hagerstown records contain all sales of the lands of Moses Chapline by his son, who settled his estate, and page after page of sales of the Joseph Chapline lands, by his son Joseph.

Part of the Land sold by Moses Chapline, Jr., to Michael Fackler, both of Washington Co., Md. Deed made April 1st, 1779, and recorded in Liber A, folio 323. Land Records, Hagerstown, Md., brought £4,600 common circulating money of Maryland for 473 acres of it.

This land lay 5 miles from Sharpsburg and 2 or 3 from Keedysville along the old Middletown road. It is beautiful land and underlaid with white marble in some parts of excellent quality.

The old homestead built at a very early day by 15th Moses Chapline, was built of hewn logs. Holes were left in the walls through which to shoot when Indians were troublesome. It had a broad central hall with huge fireplace, stairs with Walnut balustrade, rooms on both sides of hall with finely carved mantles, and a second story under a deeply sloping roof. Neighbors took refuge there. This house burned down January 9th, 1901, and Miss Betsey Shiffler, the owner at that time, was entirely consumed. She was over 90 years of age, and had spent most of her life in that house. It was 25½ ft. wide, 49½ ft. long, 1½ stories high. Near by is the family Cemetery which the deed to Michael Fackler records. "That the impaled burying ground on the aforesaid to the contents of one quarter of an acre of land shall stand and remain the property of the said Moses Chapline and his heirs and also to all and every the heirs of Moses Chapline deceased, as a family burying place to every of them to have free access to and from as often as cases of mortality shall require, forever."

In this Cemetery repose the remains of Moses Chapline and his wife Janet Caton, buried in one grave. The oldest son, Josiah, and the daughter Mary, married to William Good ; also the latter. The Cemetery is now surrounded by a stone wall built by George and Elizabeth Shiffler. Many of the neighbors have buried their dead in it. A huge Elm tree stands in the centre of the Cemetery, and waves its branches over the graves. The Cemetery is $63\frac{1}{2}$ ft. long and 30 ft. wide. A modest stone was erected by Louvisa Chapline Liggett. A beautiful spring of clear iron water is not far from the site of the old home.

The spot where stood the Linen Fulling Mill, and the Bleaching meadow, of Moses Chapline, are still pointed out, and "Maiden's Rock," from which jumped a young girl, who was being chased by Indians.

Children of (5⁵) Moses Chapline and Janet his wife, ten in number, were born between the years 1741 and 1757.

(6¹) Ruth married Mr. Lindsay, and they moved to North Carolina at quite an early date before her youngest sister Louvisa could remember. Of her descendants I have no record.

(6²) Elizabeth, usually called Betsey, married Jacob Beason, who was of Beasontown, now called Uniontown, Fayette Co., Penna. I know but of one descendant, a Mrs. Millighan. Late in life Elizabeth Beason moved to North Alabama.

(6³) Mary Chapline born about 1744, married William Good and lived near her old home until her removal to Sharpsburg, five miles distant. Her name and her husband's appear as witnesses to the will of her uncle Joseph Chapline, Sr. William Good was of Frederick Co.

(6⁴) Josiah Chapline died young and was buried in the Family Cemetery.

(6⁵) Agnes Chapline (nicknamed Nancy) married Edward Mendenhall and lived on the Tuscarora, near Martinsburg, W. Va.

(6⁶) Esther Chapline married Daniel Culp, and they moved to Kentucky about the year 1790.

(6⁷) Lydia Chapline married William Patterson of Berkeley Co., W. Va. Late in life she moved to Brookville, Ind. Her descendants are in that region.

(6⁸) Moses Chapline born October 20th, 1754, married to Mary

Caldwell, August 31st, 1775. She was born May 27th 1757.

(6⁹) William Chapline, son of Moses and Janet, married a Miss Johnson, lived a while in Sharpsburg in the stone house built by him near the Public Square. It is still a handsome house and now occupied by Dr. A. A. Biggs. William moved later to Wheeling, Va., and died in 1809. They had no children.

(6¹⁰) Louvisa Chapline, daughter of Moses and Janet, was born September 6th, 1757, near Sharpsburg, Md., in the old house. She was but five years old when her father died. She died at the farm house of her son Moses Caton Moorehead, in Muskingeon County, Ohio, October 26th, 1833. The farm bore the name St. Cloud. She married Joseph Moorehead in 1771, when less than 15 years old.

I have records of families of (6³) Mary, (6⁵) Agnes, (6⁸) Moses and (6¹⁰) Louvisa.

BRANCH OF

MARY CHAPLINE GOOD (6³).

DAUGHTER OF

MOSES AND JANET CHAPLINE.

William Good, husband of Mary Chapline, built three houses in Sharpsburg. The stone house was the first one built. In this house Josiah Good was born. One of the houses owned by the Goods' was struck by shells during the battle of Antietam in the Civil War.

BRANCH OF
(REVOLUTIONARY) MOSES CHAPLINE, 6th
SON OF
MOSES AND JANET CHAPLINE.

OBITUARY OF (6th) MOSES CHAPLINE.

"Col. Moses Chapline was one of the earliest citizens of Wheeling, Va. He served with high credit in the Revolutionary War, and received the public thanks of Gen. Washington for his bravery in one of the severest affairs of the contest. Col. Chapline enjoyed to the end of a long life the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens, having for a long term of years held the office of Clerk of all the courts held in this county."

(Copy of paper in possession of Mrs. Pomeroy of Frederick, Md.)

Doddridge's Notes, Page 12 Year 1792 says:

"Moses Chapline, Silas Hedges, Elsy Swearingen and others, supporters of Episcopal Church at West Liberty. Several of these moved to Wheeling, and this weakened this Parish."

(6th) William Chapline, son of (5th) Moses, built the storehouse near the public square in Sharpsburg, Md. now owned by Dr. A. A. Biggs. It is still a handsome house.

Page 134, of Scharf's West. Md. "Ordered that Mr. Moses Chapline be recommended to the Continental Congress as a fit person to take command of a company as a Captain in the service of his country." (He was born in 1754.)

The Tombstone of Moses Chapline, of Wheeling, read as follows:

"Sacred to the memory of Col. Moses Chapline, who was born October 20th, Anno Domini 1754. Departed this life the 10th of February, 1812, in the 58th year of his age. Is inscribed this humble testimony of his worth. As an officer he acted a conspicuous part in the Revolution which gave birth to a grand and flourishing Republic. He was a firm patriot, a brave soldier, a warm friend and a virtuous citizen, and although his mortal remains moulder beneath this stone, yet the bright example of those virtues that distinguished his character will live in the memory of his countrymen."

HIS REVOLUTIONARY RECORD.

(6th) Moses Chapline, Maryland, 1st Lieut. Md. Battalion of the Flying Camp, June to December, 1776. 1st. Lt. of 6th Maryland 10th December, 1776. Captain 20th February, 1777. Went off October 12th, 1777. Records in War Department, Washington, D. C. Battles, Long Island, Brooklyn Heights, White Plains, Storming of Ft. Washington, Trenton and Princeton.

McSherry's Md., p. 306.—"No troops in the Continental Army had rendered better service, endured more fatigue, or won greater glory than the Maryland Line. In proportion to their number no body of men suffered more severely. They were the first to use the bayonet against the experienced regulars of the enemy, and that in their earliest battle," etc.

(6th) Moses Chapline of the Revolution was wounded at the battle of Cowpens. He is buried in the Stone Church cemetery, Elm Grove, Wheeling, W. Va. He was sent out to Ohio Co. after Braddock's defeat to guard the frontier against the French and Indians. He was accompanied by Col. Ebenezer Zane, Col. John Caldwell, Major John Good, Col. Cresap and Col. Lawrence Washington. He received public thanks of Washington for his bravery in one of the severest affairs of the contest."

Mary Caldwell, his wife, was sister of Colonel John Caldwell of the Revolutionary War, and of Judge Alexander Caldwell of Wheeling, W. Va.

BRANCH OF
LOUVISA CHAPLINE MOOREHEAD (6¹⁰)

DAUGHTER OF
MOSES AND JANET CHAPLINE.

Born September 6, 1757.

LOUVISA CHAPLINE MOOREHEAD (6¹⁰),

DAUGHTER OF

MOSES AND JANET CHAPLINE,

Born September 6, 1757.

Joseph Moorehead, husband of Louvisa Chapline Moorehead, was born in Dublin, Ireland, August 15, 1746. He died, suddenly, on his forty fifth birthday, August 15, 1791, near Wheeling, W. Va., where he had been sent as Surveyor General in the, then, new Ohio County. He was of a Scottish family that had lived, for a time, in County Doreen, Ulster, Ireland. He came to this country prior to 1771, for in that year he married Louvisa Chapline, of Frederick County, Md. On account of her youth her brothers objected, so they eloped, riding on horseback just across the Maryland line to the home of his brother Ferguson Moorehead, in Franklin County, who moved to and was the first settler of Indiana County, Pa., and the hero of many thrilling Indian experiences recorded in the Pennsylvania histories. A third brother, William, came with them to this country.

Joseph Moorehead was a civil engineer and surveyed in Virginia and North Carolina. He was described by one who knew him "As a very unusual person for the times ; particularly well-educated and in every way attractive." From these three brothers are descended the Mooreheads in Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and North Carolina. "The stock is good ; its representatives in America can fearlessly stand before Kings."

The lands taken up by him in Ohio County, now West Virginia, passed into the hands of his successor, Mr. Woods, who became surveyor for that region. His young wife, after his death, with her little family went back to her old home and friends in Sharpsburg until her boys grew up, when she returned to that region to be near her brother, Moses Chapline. She settled first near Wheeling, then removed later to St. Clairsville, Ohio, thence to Zanesville, Ohio. The remains of Joseph Moorehead lie near the old Stone Church, near Wheeling.

GENEALOGY.

(6¹⁰) Louvisa Chapline, tenth and youngest child of Moses and Janet Caton Chapline, was born September 6, 1751. Married Joseph Moorehead in the year 1771. He was born August 15, 1746. She, young and delicate reared amidst as great refinement as was possible at that day, was tall, slender, and graceful, with sweet face and soft eyes—so often remarked for their exceeding brightness, proved a brave pioneer. They had six children:

(7¹) Moses Caton Moorehead born September 28, 1777.

(7²) Thomas Moorehead born August 5, 1779.

(7³) John Moorehead born in 1783.

(7⁴) Mary Moorehead born in 1785.

(7⁵) Elizabeth Black Moorehead born October 12, 1789.

(7⁶) Joseph Moorehead born February 6, 1792.

(7¹) Moses Caton Moorehead, born in Sharpsburg, Md., September 28, 1777, died in Zanesville, Ohio, March 17, 1858; married Anne Pendleton Patterson in the year 1801. She was born in Berkeley County, W. Va., February 16, 1780, and died in Zanesville, O., January 27, 1843.

(7²) Thomas Moorehead, born in Sharpsburg, August 5, 1779, died in Zanesville, Ohio, August 25, 1863. Married to Rachel Cochran, August 24, 1806. She was born in Winchester, Va., in 1782, and died in Zanesville, Ohio, November 22, 1853.

- (7³) John Moorehead, born in Sharpsburg, Md., in 1783, died in Ohio County Va., September 20, 1810. He did not marry. Was a young man of unusual promise and beloved by everyone.

- (7¹) Mary Moorehead, born 1785, died in St. Clairsville, Ohio, April 20, 1817. She married John Carter, November 13, 1806. He was born in Harford County Md., September 9, 1779, and died May 12, 1826, in St. Clairsville, Ohio.

- (7⁵) Elizabeth Black Moorehead was born in Fort Henry, Wheeling, where they had taken refuge from Indians, October 12, 1789. She died in Zanesville, Ohio, July 12, 1872. She became the second wife of Charles Hammond, of Cincinnati, who was born in New Market District, Frederick County, Md., in 1780 and died in Cincinnati, April 3, 1840. "He was a lawyer in Ohio, warm friend of Henry Clay and John Adams, and one of the ablest editors and lawyers in Ohio."—Scharf, Vol. II, p. 536.

After the sudden death of her husband in Ohio County, now West Virginia, Louvisa Chapline Moorehead went back to Sharpsburg with her five young children. There her son

- (7⁶) Joseph Moorehead was born February 6, 1792, five months after his father's death. He died in Zanesville, Ohio, June 11, 1854, after a very successful naval career. He was greatly beloved by all who knew him; was a man of exceptionally gentle and tender nature.

Died at Zanesville, Ohio, June 11, 1854."

While on duty in the Mediterranean he was washed overboard and thought to be dead. He was resuscitated by singeing his thigh with a hot iron. This caused a slight lameness and delicacy of constitution, which accounts for his long leave of absence previous to his death. He often spoke of the agony of returning to life.

MOSES CATON MOOREHEAD (71)

SON OF

LOUVISA AND JOSEPH MOOREHEAD.

Moses Caton Moorehead went on a visit to Martinsburg to his aunt, Lydia Patterson, he there met and loved Anne Pendleton Patterson, the young half-sister of William Patterson, and daughter of William Patterson, of Virginia, and his second wife, Hannah Vance. They first settled in St. Clairsville, Ohio, then moved to Zanesville, Ohio, and about the year 1818, built the home, corner 7th and Marietta Sts., in which they died. It was patterned after the old home of his grandfather, Moses Chapline, near Sharpsburg. He retained the home farm "St. Cloud," near Zanesville, for many years. It is now owned by Joseph Moore.

BRANCH OF
MARY MOOREHEAD CARTER 1741.
DAUGHTER OF
JOSEPH AND LOUVISA MOOREHEAD.

GENEALOGY OF HER HUSBAND.

John Carter, her husband, was only brother of nine sisters. He was son of Daniel Carter, of Harford County, Md., and his second wife, Maria McMillan. Daniel Carter's first wife was Margery Talbot. Maria McMillan, was daughter of James McMillan, of Fawn Township, York County, Pa., and his wife, Jane Matthews.

James McMillan was legal heir to the beautiful Dunragget Estate in Wigdonshire, Scotland, through his dead father, Francis McMillan, son of the old Scotch Lord. His wife refused to be separated from him while he should go to claim it. Sir James Hay is the present incumbent.

Jane Matthews, was daughter of a Dublin merchant, and her maternal grandparents were Christopher and Ann Coates, the wealthy Quaker, who were preachers. Daniel Carter's parents were Daniel Carter, Sr., and Catharine Chandler, married in Queen Caroline Parish, Anne Arundell County, Md., July 21, 1734, by Rev. Jas. MacGill. Their only child, Daniel, was born April 16, 1738.—See church records for that parish.

Daniel Carter, Sr., was the son of Rear Admiral Richard Carter, English Royal Navy, and his wife, Mary, and was sent to this country on work for the English Government, and lost his life in one of the Colonial Wars. His first wife was Ruth Warfield, whom he married June 17, 1719.

Rear Admiral Richard Carter, was the hero of the battle of La Hogue, May 19, 1692. He lay wounded on deck all day, giving orders to his men "Fight the ship as long as she can swim." He died at sundown and was buried in Plymouth with great honors. His property lay in Binstead, Hampshire, England. (See English Histories and Estates and Charnock's Biog. Navalis, Vol. I, p. 389; also his will.)

Catharine Chandler, was a relative of the famous Job Chandler, of St. Mary's County, Md., and was daughter of William Chandler, of Anne Arundell County, and connected with the Thoroughgood, Sewell, Fowke, Calvert and Lowe families.

Daniel Carter, was buried near the old Stone Church, Wheeling, W. Va.

John Carter, who was born September 9, 1779, in Harford County, Md., had nine sisters: 1. Jane, married to Frederick Farmer and had five children; 2. Margery, married to Richard Freeman and had twelve children; 3. Maria, an earnest churchwoman, friend to Bishop Chase and Dr. Doddridge, died October 9, 1870, aged 86 years; 4. Hannah, married to John List, banker in Wheeling, and had four children—Capt. John List; Mrs. Mary Morrison, wife of Robert Morrison; Daniel Carter List and Henry K. List—the last two were prominent bankers in Wheeling, W. Va.; 5. Anne Coates, who died January 9, 1816; 6. Sarah, married to Wilmeth Jones and had eight children: Daniel; Olivia, married to Judge Peck; Robert, married to Anna Maria Sturgis; Wilmeth; Anna Maria; Dorcas Matilda, married to Mr. John Wallace—she was a writer of great ability; Harriet Lonisa; and Narcissa Doddridge, married to Mr. Joseph Gaston, of Portland, Oregon, who have one daughter, Mary. 7. Harriet Carter, married to Wm. Bradshaw in 1813, had five children—Anne Maria, married to Benj. Davenport; Mary, married to Isaac Pumphrey Paymaster, U. S. A. Civil War; John William married to Camsadell Koontz; Harriet Jane, and James. 8. Ruth Carter who died in January, 1887, aged 96 years. 9. Dorcas, who died August 11, 1882.

Bishop Chase, a life long friend of the family and frequent guest of John Carter, used to say of the little home where Dorcas and Ruth and their saintly sister, Maria, lived "that it always reminded him of the one at Bethany where Jesus loved to go."

Daniel Carter's children by his first wife, Margery Talbot, were: 1. Richard, married, first, Mary Fawcett; second, a Miss Smith; 2. Daniel, married to Nancy Moore; 3. Martha, married to Joshua Comly.

James and Jane McMillan lived to a great age. He became blind. Their children were: 1. Maria, married to Daniel Carter; 2. John, died in young manhood; 3. Dorcas, married first to John Thompson; second to Mr. Milburn; 4. Sarah, married Mr. Thompson, brother to John; 5. George McMillan, married Miss Jewel, and they had nine children: John, James, Robert, George, Jane, Mary, Nancy, Maria, and Dorcas. John married Mary Ewing; James married Eleanor Curley; Robert married Margaret Jones; Jane married John Wise; Mary married Theophilus Jones; Nancy married Mr. Hitchcock; Maria married Mr. Bulette, or Bullock(?), and Dorcas married Mr. Kelsey. George, the fourth son, went from home and his descendants are unknown to the family.

JOHN CARTER.

John Carter's second wife was Eliza Berry, whom he married November 19, 1820, and had one daughter, Mary Ann Carter, who was born October 14, 1822. She married Benj. Wilson, November 21, 1839, and had two children: 1. Isabel, born, November 2, 1841 and, 2. Addison F., born, March 30, 1843.

Isabel, married Wm. Turner, March 23, 1858, and had three children: Oscar, born April 10, 1859; died November 30, 1867; Ada Maude, born February 1, 1869; married Edward Hetzel, of Zanesville, Ohio, and has one son, Phillip. Their third child is Ralph E. Turner, born November 8, 1887. Addison F. Wilson, married Lucetta Meade, January 29, 1867. He died April 4, 1875. She died September 7, 1884. They had two children: Lulu A., born November 7, 1867; died March 27, 1893, and Rush Wilson, born in 1871, an attorney in Columbus, Ohio: married, and has one little daughter.

JOHN SCHNELL LIGGETT, M. D.

John Schnell Liggett, M. D., who married Louisa Chapline Carter, daughter of Mary Moorehead and John Carter, was the son of John and Judith Liggett. John's father was James Liggett and his mother, a Miss Bradford, of Lancaster County, Pa., sister of Capt. Bradford, of the Revolutionary Army. Heitman's Hist. Register, p. 95, says of him "James Bradford, 2^d Lieut. of 9th Penna., January 15, 1777; 1st Lieut., Patton's Additional Continental Regiment, March, 1777, to rank from 14th of January, 1777; Regimental Quartermaster, in 1778; Transferred to 2^d Continental Artillery, July 21, 1779; Aide-de-camp to General Alexander, June 24, to November, 1781; 1st Lieut., 25th of June, 1781; Regimental Adjutant, 22nd of August, 1782, to June, 1783; Transferred to Corps of Artillery, 17th of June, 1783, and served to June 20th, 1784; Capt. United States Artillery Company, October 20, 1786; Capt. Artillery, U. S. Army, September 29, 1789; Killed, November 4, 1791, in action with Miami Indians, on the Maumee River, Ohio." A full account of this massacre will be found in Howe's Historical Collections of Ohio. His father was such a patriot that he forbid a daughter, who had eloped with an English officer, ever to return to his home.

Judith Schnell Liggett, was daughter of John and Anna Schnell. John Schnell, was born in York County, Pa., his parents came from Würtemberg, Germany, about 1700 and he served as Sergeant in the Penna. Artillery of the Revolution. See Penna. in the Revolution. He and his wife lived to be nearly 100 years old. Their son, Philip, also lived to a great age, and served in the Revolution.

GEORGE AMASA JONES.

George Amasa Jones, who married Maria Carter, daughter of Mary Moorehead and John Carter, was born in Hartford, Connecticut, June 8, 1800, and died at his home, Mt. Prospect, Zanesville, Ohio, January 20, 1877. His parents were Amasa and Cynthia Jones. He was raised in North Adams, Mass., and descended from Colonial families of New England—Massachusetts and Connecticut. His grandfather, Israel Jones, was executor of his cousin, Ephraim William's, Estate and was for over fifty years a Trustee of Williams College. His great grandfather, Col. Elisha Jones, of Weston, was Colonel of Middlesex Militia, member of the Assembly—thrice elected and was a prominent Tory, and his property was confiscated. His sons held offices in the English and Canadian Armies, a descendant of one of them being now, Lieut.-Governor, of Nova Scotia, who recently for the second time, declined Knighthood. Col. Elisha Jones, was grandfather of Thoreau. The Lords of Connecticut, the Days, Dwights, Sedgwicks, Goodwins, Stones and Hookers, were of this family. Col. Richard Lord, who brought the Charter to Connecticut, and Wm. Pynchon, who was one to bring the Charter to Massachusetts, were his progenitors. Mr. Geo. A. Jones was an earnest patriot and a representative American, a very successful business man, and of a most genial temperament.

BRANCH OF
WILLIAM CHAPLINE (5^r)

Born April 17, 1726,

SON OF

WILLIAM AND ELIZABETH.

BY

ANNA LATIMER CHAPLINE PHILLIPS.

(5^r) William Chapline, born 1726, settled in Virginia and took up large tracts of land along the Potomac River. His original grant extended from the Neck to Harper's Ferry—seventeen miles. He married Ann Forman, daughter of James and Ann, the first settlers of Shepherdstown, Va. (then Mechlinburg). She was sister of Reuben, James, and Capt. Wm. Forman, of the Revolutionary War, who with his two sons—Hamilton and Nathan—were killed September 26, 1777.

William Chapline was a Captain in the French and Indian War of 1757. He was very brave. "In an engagement with Indians he was scalped, but reinforcements coming up before the coup-de-grace could be given, the enemy fled. Capt. Chapline crawled into a thicket of Paw-Paw bushes and subsisted on the fruit for several days until found by his friends." In June, 1751, he was granted 2,682 acres by Patent. The greater part of his estate remained in his family until the close of the Civil War. (Records of Register of Deeds Office, Winchester, Va.)

Saffell's Rev. Records, p. 500: Abraham Chapline, Captain in Virginia Regiment Land Warrant, December 31, 1784.

WILLIAM CHAPLINE (6⁵)

- (6⁵) William Chapline, the early settler in Kentucky, was, before going there, one of the members of the first Town Council of Mechlinburg, Va., now Shepherdstown, W. Va., and which once bore the name of "Kitakan." The old records of this Council still exist. The Chattanooga Times of recent date, February, 1893, gives an account of the arrest in Kentucky of the celebrated Daniel Boone: the article says: "The fight was evidently not a serious one, probably not being more than a fisticuff, but that was a law abiding community (Warren County, Ky.), and they knew too many Indian fighters to respect 'Gen. Boone, Backwoodsman of Kentucky,' as Byron terms him. A warrant was issued for his arrest and signed by William Chapline, who was Clerk of the Quarter Sessions Court. He was a neat penman, and his records of ninety-five years ago are nearly as legible now as when they first left his gray-goose quill."

ISAAC CHAPLINE (7¹),

SON OF

ISAAC AND ELENOR CHAPLINE.

(7¹) Isaac Chapline, son of (6⁶) Isaac and Elenor Swearingen Chapline, was born February 7, 1785, at the Chapline homestead in Virginia. He married, at an early age, Elizabeth Keech Alder Fry. He was a man of fine presence, very tall and well-built, blue eyes and very light hair. He lived a long and useful life, dying at the breaking out of the Civil War. He was a man of great wealth and left his grandchildren large estates, many slaves, and a large amount of personal property. He was an active member of the Episcopal Church of Shepherdstown, Va., from his boyhood. He was a vestryman in the old Church and contributed largely to the building of the New Trinity Episcopal Church, which was dedicated April 1859, with great ceremony, in which he took an active part. He was one of the pallbearers of Henry Clay. He died March 31, 1861. The Vestry put on record their deep sorrow at his loss and great respect for his exemplary character and usefulness.

Shepherdstown Register:

"Mr. Isaac Chapline, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of this county, died suddenly of apoplexy at the residence of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. James A. Chapline, three miles north of this place, while on a visit Sunday evening. During the morning of the same day Mr. Chapline attended the Communion services, apparently in his usual good health. Took supper with the family of Mr. Lorenzo Etchison. He then walked to the residence of Mrs. Chapline, but a short distance, and on reaching the door, fell and expired a few moments later. He was in the 78th year of his age." He was buried in the old family burying ground on the land taken up under the King by his ancestor, Wm. Chapline in 1726.

The descendants of William Chapline are still occupying the old family home, near Shepherdstown. It is an old stone house with dormer windows. In their possession is a silver seal of the Chapline Crest. The three brothers lived within easy reach of each other, and this branch of the family always kept the memory of descent from Isaac Chapline of "Chapline's Choice," while the other branches of the family moved on westward and lost records.

Their family Cemetery is in a good state of preservation.

OBITUARY OF

HON. JOSEPH A. CHAPLINE (18th).

Hon. Joseph A. Chapline, was born March 14, 1832, and educated in Jefferson County W. Va. Read law under Judge Perrea, of Cumberland, Md. Soon after his admission to the bar, he migrated to Dubuque, Iowa, where he was a partner in the law firm, Chapline, Barney, Barker & Dillon.

When the Fremont Campaign opened, though educated in the political faith and peculiar prejudices of the locality of his birth, he engaged zealously in the Anti-Slavery Cause, and was one of the pioneers of "Republican" principals in the, then, young state of Iowa. He came to Washington with the Electoral returns for Mr. Lincoln from Iowa.

He returned to Virginia at the breaking out of the Civil War; did not go with his State, but sided with his Country and performed special duty throughout the war. He acted an important part in the organization of the State of West Virginia and represented Jefferson County three terms in the State Senate.

He was appointed to the Bench in 1869, by Gov. A. I. Boreman, as Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit, composed of Hampshire, Morgan, Berkeley, and Jefferson Counties.

Judge Chapline, was for years a trustee of "Berkeley Springs." He was a prominent Mason. He died suddenly at his home near Shepherdstown, W. Va., September 3, 1870, aged 38 years 5 months and 20 days.

The Dubuque, Iowa, paper said of Judge Chapline, "Cut off in the prime of life his loss is sincerely deplored. The State mourns because, in his departure, the community has lost a most affable and generous citizen. In a public capacity he was mourned by all, as a friend, by many. He was a friend whose generosity of soul evinced the fact, and whose heart when once enlisted was not estranged by time nor circumstance." (Paper in possession of Chas. T. Chapline.)

45. Page 110. "Long before the American Revolution, Annapolis was conspicuous as the seat of wealth and fashion. The luxurious habits, elegant accomplishments and profuse hospitality of its inhabitants were proverbially known throughout the Colonies. It was the seat of a wealthy government and as such, congregated around it many whose liberal attainments eminently qualified them for Society."

46. "King Williams Academy was founded here in 1696. Still standing in 1706. Was burned. Present College, St. John's, opened 1789."

47. "First ship yard was established in Annapolis in 1747."

48. "First theatre in America erected in Annapolis in 1752." Page 149. "The ground was leased from St. Anne's Church." This Church was so ugly that some one wrote.

"Here in Annapolis alone
God has the meanest house in town."

The Church was torn down and rebuilt in 1774, as a result of this "poetry."

49. Quakers were so called in derision, from the trembling or quaking, caused by the influence of the Spirit in them. They called themselves "Professors," or "Children of the Light," or "Friends."—Stroud's Pennsylvania.

50. In 1736, contest occurred about boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania.

51. Moses Chapline, of the Revolution, is said to have laid out Morristown, Ohio.

52. Boonesboro, Md., is said to have been laid out on the land Louvisa Moorehead inherited from her father, Moses Chapline, Sr.

53. James Chapline, son of the Revolutionary Moses, died unmarried. He was the accepted lover of Amelia McIntire, daughter of John McIntire, who laid out Zanesville, Ohio, and named it for his wife's family. The sudden death of Miss McIntire broke his heart. He met and loved her at the house of his sister, Mrs. Noah Zane.

54. The Pike to Zanesville was made on the road called Zane's Trace.

55. The Joseph Chapline home farm passed through the hands of the following persons: Mrs. Jeremiah Chapline to Philip Grove; Philip Grove to Mrs. Rhinehart; Mrs. Rhinehart to Henry Blackford; Henry Blackford to Mr. Myers; Mr. Myers to Henry Neikirk.

56. The Moses Chapline home farm, from his son Moses to Michael Faekler; Michael Faekler to Mr. Schulte; Schulte to Mr. Shiffler.

57. The William Chapline home farm still in possession of his descendants.

58. Edgar Chapline, of Sharpsburg, has in his possession a handsome clothes brush of very fine English bristles, black, with lettering of white bristles, which was the property of Joseph Chapline, Sr. The lettering is A. D. 1766.

59. "Fort Henry stood two severe sieges, it was built in 1774, upon the spot in Wheeling, known as Zane's Row. Present residence of Col. Chas. D. Knox." "Pickets were of white oak 17 feet high, supported by bastions, was planned by George Rogers Clark, one of the first military genius' of the land, and named for Patrick Henry, Governor of Virginia." "The fort was of hewn logs."—De Haas; p. 277.

60. From Doddridge's Notes: "Geo. Hammond, Esq., and his friends, by name, Gist, Hood, &c., principally sustained St. George's Church (Father of Charles.) Page 18. "St. Thomas, in St Clairsville in 1813, was established by some of Dr. Doddridge's parishioners, who removed to that place.—It was represented in the First Annual Convention of the Diocese of Ohio, by John Carter, lay delegate."

61. Col. Moses Moorehead, of Zanesville, Ohio, mentioned on Page 301.

62. In 1818, Dr. Doddridge spoke on the sudden death of William, son of Chas. Hammond, on verses 13 and 14, of 19th chapter of Matthew, at Mr. Hammond's request.

63. Page 336. Supporters of St. Matthew's Church in Wheeling,—vestrymen, W. T. Good, Josiah Chapline, William Chapline and Moses W. Chapline. Mr. Noah Zane gave the lot.

64. In 1621, "The population of Virginia did not exceed

3,000 Souls and yet 11 boroughs sent 22 Members to their General Assembly.—Burk's Virginia. In 1624 the number was much less owing to the Massacre of 1622, and yet 24 or 25 names are signed to "Butler's Information."—An appeal to the King for better protection.

65. "Fort Frederick was on the North bank of the Potomac River." Annals of Annapolis, p. 131.

ORIGIN OF NAME CHAPLINE.

"A highly prized flag and one much older than the Tricolor is that of St. Martin. This was the standard of the Nation for six hundred years and was made of that half of the Saint's remarkable blue mantle which remained to cover his chilly person, after dividing the original cloak with his sword, so as to give a covering to the freezing beggar at the gates of Amiens.

"This half of his cloak so valued by the French never showed signs of decay during many centuries, even the moths of this Monastery being far too good Catholics to even think of attacking the sacred, carefully guarded bit of woollen. The little oratory in which it was preserved—this cloak or cape or in French "Chapi" acquired from the treasure it held the name of "Chapelle" and the person who cared for it was called "Chaplain" and thus we are told arose our English names Chapel and Chaplain, which have been converted into Chapline." Book of Heraldry.

"St. Martin was bishop of Tours, born at Sabaria in Pannonia about 316, died about 400—entered the Army at the age of 15, and having divided his cloak with the beggar while he was stationed at Amiens, on the following night had the vision of Christ making known to His angels this act of Charity to Himself." (Encyclopædia.)

66. Mrs. Hays said Joseph Chapline owned an immense estate his original grant was from Ringold's Manor to Harper's Ferry—15 or 16 miles.

67. "John Chapline, of County Essex, England, bought the reversion of Cornett, commonly called Cornish Hall, in 1576. In 1581 gave it to his son and heir, Thomas, after whose decease his cousin, James Chaplyn, paid ingress fines for it in 1627." Several other properties to same John Chaplyn. — Morant's Essex, 68. John Moorehead and wife, Martha, were pioneers of Ida.

The town of Ida is part of their land.

Joseph and John Moorehead, sons of Thomas and Rachel, went to California among the pioneers, but returned later to Ohio.

69. Henry Moorehead, son of Moses C. and Ann P., was one of the earliest settlers in the neighborhood of Davenport, Iowa.

70. Midshipman Daniel Carter made a cruise in the Mediterranean before his death. He was a great favorite with the officers. He died at night, in a boarding house, corner Monumental Square, Baltimore.

71. Capt. Joseph Moorehead, U. S. N., was buried in Zanesville with military honors.

72. Bishop Chase was the founder of Kenyon College. Maria Carter kept up her interest in, and assistance to, it until her death.

ERRATA.

Page 19.—James Chapline, died single should be Jane Chapline.

Page 30.—On third line word "and" should be "he."

Page 44.—Should have quotation marks before "He" in line "He was sent out to Ohio Co."

Page 50.—8th 8th 8th should be 8th 8th 8th.

Page 92.—6th William should be 6th William.

Page 105.—Note 6, should end with word "dead."

Page 105.—Note 7, should read "Page 23, January 19, 1622, Kitakan in Virginia, now called Elizabeth City" (Hagerstown).

Pages v and vi.—"Elizbeth" should be Elizabeth.

Page xii.—"Web" should be Webb.

In justice to Mr. Henry Neikirk I will say that in deference to public opinion he did not plant a peach orchard on the ground of the family cemetery of Joseph Chapline, Senior.
